

Visiting Assistant Professor of Dance

Berry College – ROME, GA – The Fine Arts Department seeks a Visiting Assistant Professor and primary instructor and coordinator for the Dance Program for a one-year appointment with the possibility of renewal. Responsibilities include teaching dance technique courses (the technique areas open) and choreography, overseeing the Berry College Dance Troupe, and working cooperatively with our theatre program and our new minor in musical theatre.

We seek to further develop our dance program, currently served by a part time adjunct instructor in addition to this position. Along with a dance minor, we have a tradition of a dance concert each semester. Minimum qualifications include a terminal degree in dance and a record of excellence in teaching dance at the collegiate level.

Start Date: August 2019

Application deadline: Review of dossiers will begin no later than April 5 and continue until the position is filled.

What to Send: Submit electronically a letter of application, curriculum vitae, college and graduate transcripts, as well as any relevant video material to Dr. Adam Hayes, Chair, Department of Fine Arts, jhayes@berry.edu
