

Dancing into Success: Conversations on College Programs and Careers in Dance

📅 January 20, 2024

🕒 8:30 am – 12 pm

📍 Alabama School of Fine Arts, Birmingham, Alabama

📄 Agenda

Session 1: Careers On the Stage and Beyond

Session 2: College Dance Programs

Registration: Click to register

Email: info@alabamadancecouncil.org

This first session aims to provide valuable insights into professional career opportunities within the dance industry, exploring both on-stage and off-stage pathways. Representatives from esteemed college dance programs will share comprehensive information on post-secondary opportunities during the second session.

Attendance is free and open to the public, but registration is required.

Two esteemed panels, comprising industry professionals and representatives from renowned college programs, will conduct these enlightening sessions. A dedicated question and answer segment will follow each discussion. Furthermore, attendees are encouraged to engage in one-on-one conversations with panelists during the post-event exhibit hall session.

Your presence at this event will contribute significantly to the discourse on the future landscape of post-secondary dance education and careers in dance. We invite you to take advantage of this opportunity for invaluable insights and networking.

For additional information, please do not hesitate to contact info@alabamadancecouncil.org. We anticipate the pleasure of your company at this enriching event.

Dancing for Success in the Alabama Dance Festival's community outreach and education program. This program provides high-quality, meaningful arts experiences focused on the community at-large.

